

Mrs. Hildreth,
ex-editor, dies

BRUNDIDGE — Funeral services for a former Montgomery Advertiser correspondent and Brundidge Sentinel editor will be Wednesday at 3 p.m.

Mrs. Mattie Lee Byrd Hildreth, 80, died Tuesday in an Ozark nursing home.

Mrs. Hildreth was an Advertiser correspondent for about 18 years beginning in the late 1940s. She also wrote fiction, historical pieces and plays.

Mrs. Hildreth had been unable to work due to arteriosclerosis since 1971.

A native of Dale County, she married A.N. Hildreth of Coffee County and moved to Brundidge where they raised two children. (See Death Notices.)
