Instructions -
Prepared for each aviation cadet officer by the Classification Center; or, in the case of officers who by-pass classification, by the first school of entry into air crew training. Must accompany trainee through each successive course of training. At each school in which training is received, the instructor staff will appraise and rate the trainee's proficiency based on the personal observations of his instructors. Each school will rate the trainee in only those proficiencies which are applicable to the course received. Upon completion and graduation from training, the school at which the trainee received his final training will enter the transmittal information provided for on the reverse side and make two (2) additional copies of the completed Proficiency Card. One (1) copy will be retained; one (1) copy will be sent to Training Center Headquarters; and the original will be forwarded to the organization of the trainee's first assignment. On receipt of the report from the organization of first assignment as provided for on the reverse side, this information will be entered on the copy retained by the school, and will be then forwarded to Training Center Headquarters for permanent record. Proficiency Cards will be maintained in the Office of Director of Training. Students will not be permitted to see their Cards.
